THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES SCORED & GLORIOUS TRIUMPH.

Over Five Thousand Majority Rolled Up for the Bedevers in Jeffersonian Principles.

The vote in Richmond yesterday shows he largest majority, in proportion to the number of votes cast, for years, and Chairman Patteson and his Democratic workers have great cause for rejoiding. The returns from every part of the State show beyond a doubt that the Democratic ticket is elected by a splendid majority. and that the Populists have been snowed under from the mountain to the sea.

The election was one of the most quiet ever known in Richmond, and not an incident worthy of note transpired during the entire day. Each precinct had its quota of workers from the Democratic and Populist parties, and at a few of the voting places holders of Prohibition tickets were seen.

Although there was entire lack of noisy enthusiasm, the Democratic workers were on the alert and let few voters escape without being earnestly canvassed.

The Populist workers were principally unknown men, and had an untill time of unknown men, and had an uphill time of it. In more than one instance they were repulsive neuroes, and their efforts at inducing Populist votes acted as a boomerang, and decided disaffected Democrats to cust the old party ballot.

The only impression made by the Populists in this city was in Jackson ward, where Captain Cocke received the pairry plurality of 47 votes. Considering the large Republican vote that this ward against prives the result is a grand Democratical control of the illy gives, the result is a grand Demo-

Cunningham sang several solos, and the delightful tenor voice was never heard to greater advantage.

Members of Grace Episcopal church were invited, and there was a very large Home. Mr. Henry Eacho, who was shot in the leg by a negro on Twenty-second and Main streets, Monday afternoon, was doing very well at his esidence on Twenty-eighth and Franklit streets, yesterday. The negro has not yet been captured. Mr. Emanuel Levy, of Albany, N. Y., and Miss Cecilia, a daughter of Mr. Jacob Cohen, of Peersburg, are to be married at the synagogue there next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony at the synagogue will be followed by a brilliant german and supper at the Library Hall. Invited guests will be in attendance from Albany, Baltimore and other northern cries. Mr. Levy is a prominent merchant faller of Albany.

A BEAUTIFUL RECEPTION. Iwo of Richmond's Beautiful Daughters Make Ther Debut.

At a superb reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walker, on east Grace street, yesterday afternoon and evening, Miss Elizaleth Hayes and Miss Mary Stuart Hayes, two charming de-butantes, made there debut in Richmond's fashionable society. Mrs. Walker, the hostess, is a sister of the young ladies, she being before her marriage the beautiful and charming Columbia Hayes. The pariors, spacious and possessing much to make them pretty, were enhanced in beauty by tasteful decorations of American beauties and chrysanthemums, and the annex to the parlor floor, in which champagne punch was served, was niquely and prettily decorated with large

There were very large ounger set. There were very large rowds on both occasions, and the dainty ollation served added an enjoyable zest the charming affair.

Those who received were Mrs. W. J. Walker, Mrs. James Hayes, Miss Elizabeth Stuart Hayes, Miss Anne Leathers, of Louisville, a guest of Mrs. Walker, Miss Carrie Talbott, Miss Irene Langhorne, Miss Elise Williams and Miss Annie Walker.

A Delightful Concert.

A delightful concert took place at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall last evening, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to "A Hospital for Incurables," Mr. Polk Miller had charge of the entertainment, and many of Richmond's most prominent musicians participated.

Starboard and Port. The term starboard or port when applied to the wheel of a ship is a conundrum to a landsman which he has difficulty in getting through his head. How the turning of the wheel, which acts on the rudder, brings about the desired result of starboard and port can be illustrated by refrence to a Chinaman. A starboard wheel throws the stern of A starboard wheel throws a vessel to starboard, changing the course of the bow to port and vice versa. At the North Pole. At the North Pole there is only one direction-south. One could go south in as many ways as there are points on the as many ways as there are points on the compass card, but every one of these ways is south; east and treat have vanished. The hour of the day at the pole is a paradoxical conception, for that point is the meeting-place of every meridian, and the time of all holds good, so that it is any hour one cares to mention. Unpunctuality is hence impossible.—San Francisco Arganaut. Francisco Argonaut.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." TWENTY-FIVE GO DOWN.

IWO PROPELLERS COLLIDE OFF POINT AUX BARQUES.

The Crews Start for Shore to Life Boats and One of them Capsized During the Night,

SAND BEACH, MICH., Nov. 7 .- The propeller Albany, of the Western Transit Company, loaded with grain, and the propeller Philadelphia, of the Anchor Line, loaded with coal and general merchandise, two of the largest freight boats on the lakes, collided off Point Aux Barques, in the dense fog of last night, and both sank shortly afterwards, in 200 feet of water. The Philadelphia struck the Albary head on, forward of No. 2 gangway.

All hands got on board the Philadelphia and she towed the Albany half an hour, when the latter sunk. The Philadelphia went down thirty minutes later. Both crews got away in small boats. One of them with both Captains and twenty men reached the shore at Point Aux Barques this morning. The second small boat containing twenty-five men of the crews of the propellers Albany and Philadelphia, which were in the collision, and sank during the night, capsized and all were lost. Eleven bodies have been recovered by the life saving crew at Point Aux Barques.

Imp issued Mites.

A Bombay doctor is exhibiting a really extraordinary entomological specimen in a small miscroscope. Fourteen months ago a couple of mites from a Stilton cheese were placed on the glass of a miscroscope with the point of a pin, for the entertainment of some children. "I thought," writes the doctor, "no more about the subject and put the miscroscope in my desk and left for the hills. About in my desk and left for the hills. About a week ago I bappened to want the use of the miscroscope, and looked through to see if it was clean. To my astonishment, there were the mites, lively, well, and apparently very happy, and this after being between two little glass discs for fourteen months—to January 1893! TO SELL OR NOT TO SELL? THAT IS THE QUESTION.

Whether it is more prudent in the Furniture Dealer's mind to suffer the constant visits of his impatient creditors, or to dispose of part of his stock at a sacrifice, and by that disposition pay them. This is exactly what I propose to do. I carry the largest stock of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE in Virginia, and until the McKinley Bill, the Sherman Bill, Dollar Bill, Buffalo Bill, or some other Bill brings better times to the country, I will sell my goods at fully 25 per cent less than I would have done three months ago. You need not take my word for it; visit every other Furniture nouse in the city, examine their goods, get their prices. But if you know what is good for you, you will not buy till you have ascertained how much lower my prices are for a superior grade of goods,

IMPOSING BLACK BATIN. Worn by Young Ladies and Matrons as Reception, Visiting and Dining Gow s-No Novelty in Winter

(Correspondence The Dispatch.) New York, Nov. 4 .- There is a renewed vogue this year for black satin. The richness and stateliness of black satin have made it, with many good, old-fashioned folk, the chosen mate tal for the one choicely preserved 'best dress," and the same qualities have rendered it heretofore one of the special privileges of matrophood: but now quite young women are wearing it, and it seems to become them. Black, you see, is so universally becoming. If you are not convinced on that point, look at a ball-room full of men clad in the conventional spike tail of black
